

Public Square vs. Public School Student Worksheet

Directions:

Working with a partner, read through the list of statements. After reading each statement, discuss with your partner whether this activity is constitutional in a public square or public school. You may circle one choice, both choices, or neither. Once you have made your choice together, write what you discussed in the space provided under each statement.

---

A group of people gather to study a religious text.

Public
Square      Public
School

---

An individual wears a t-shirt denying the existence of God.

Public
Square      Public
School

---

Before an important event, the leader of the program offers a prayer.

Public
Square      Public
School

---

A plaque with the 10 Commandments is set up by an artist.

Public
Square      Public
School

---

Muslims kneel down and pray facing towards Mecca.

Public
Square      Public
School

---

Religious pamphlets are left out for anyone to take and read.

Public
Square      Public
School

---

Jewish members of the community wear yarmulkes.

Public
Square      Public
School

---